

Application for Amateur Operator's Certificate of Proficiency (ADVANCED)

Delegation/Release of Information to Third Party

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) has, under subsection 122A (1) of the Radiocommunications Act 1992 (Act), delegated the power to issue certificates of proficiency to the University of Tasmania (UTAS). The Australia Maritime College (AMC), an institute of UTAS, provides the service for issuing certificates. The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Privacy Act) imposes obligations on the ACMA in relation to the collection, security, storage, use and disclosure of personal information. These obligations are detailed in the Australian Privacy Principles. As the delegate of the ACMA, the AMC is bound by these obligations. If you are successful in your application for proficiency, these obligations also apply to AMC.

AMC may collect personal information if it is reasonably necessary for, or directly related to the conduct of an activity carried out under a Deed Agreement between the AMC and the ACMA. The purpose of the collection of the personal information is to issue you with an amateur radio certificate of proficiency. With the exception of disclosing personal information collected for the purpose of issuing a certificate of proficiency, the AMC will not use the information for any other purpose, nor will we disclose it, unless we have your permission to do so under the Privacy Act. If you do not provide the information, we will be unable to process your application for a certificate of proficiency (or for further information regarding incomplete applications). Further information on the Privacy Act is available at www.acma.gov.au/privacypolicy. The UTAS privacy policy is available at www.utas.edu.au/privacy. The Privacy policy also contains details about how you may access personal information about you that is held by AMC or seek the correction of such information. AMC contact details are provided at the top of this form. It also explains how you may complain about a breach of the Privacy Act and how we will deal with such a complaint. In accordance with the Privacy Act, if you require the result of your examination to be released to your assessor and/or training provider you must give permission. Please indicate with a mark your response.

I permit the release of my name and results to my assessor and/or training provider.
