

Application for Amateur Operator's Certificate of Proficiency (REGULATIONS)

Delegation/Release of Information to Third Party

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) has, under subsection 122A (1) of the Radiocommunications Act 1992 (Act), delegated the power to issue certificates of proficiency to the University of Tasmania (UTAS). The Australia Maritime College (AMC), an institute of UTAS, provides the service for issuing certificates. The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the Privacy Act) imposes obligations on the ACMA in relation to the collection, security, quality, access, use and disclosure of personal information. These obligations are detailed in the Australian Privacy Principles. As the delegate of the ACMA for the issue of certificates of proficiency, these obligations also apply to AMC.

AMC may collect personal information if it is reasonably necessary for, or directly related to the conduct of examination carried out under a Deed Agreement between the AMC and the ACMA. The purpose of the collection of the personal information is to issue an amateur radio certificate of proficiency. With the exception of disclosing personal information collected to the ACMA for the purpose of issuing a certificate of proficiency, the AMC will not use the information for any other purpose, nor will we disclose it, unless we have your permission under the Privacy Act. If you do not provide the information, we will be unable to process your application for a certificate of proficiency (or for further information regarding incomplete applications). Further information on the Privacy Act is available at www.acma.gov.au/privacy-policy. The UTAS privacy policy is available at <http://www.utas.edu.au/privacy>. The Privacy Act also explains how you may complain about a breach of the Privacy Act and how we will deal with such a complaint. In accordance with the Privacy Act, if you require the result of your examination to be released to your assessor and/or training provider you must give permission. Please indicate with a mark your response.

I permit the release of my name and results to my assessor and/or training provider.

Application form for amateur non-assigned apparatus licence

General Instructions

1. You must be qualified before you apply. The amateur qualifications and call sign allocations are available on the ACMA website.
2. Applications for apparatus licences are made through the ACMA website.
3. Before filling out this form, please read these instructions and the Guidance Notes attached to the form.
4. Please print clearly. Illegible, unclear or incomplete information may result in your application being rejected.
5. Applicant's details: provide the existing or proposed licensee's details, not those of an agent.
6. Disclosure of personal details - Information provided by the applicant or authorised representative in a field of this form that is marked with an asterisk (*) is required by section 147 of the Radiocommunications Act to be disclosed to the public by the ACMA in the Register of Radiocommunications Licences. The ACMA will disclose the contents of the Register by making it available for inspection at any ACMA office and on its website.

This example is appropriate for someone that already holds a Foundation Licence.

If you want to retain your previous callsign (as many do) check "New Service". Otherwise select "Variation to Existing Service". Varying a Service lets previous calls go; licence charges can be rebated.
